

KNOCK OUT OPIOID ABUSE

Oct. 26, 2017
Rowan College at
Burlington County
7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Moderator: Lt. Louis Fisher, Jr., Riverside Township Police Department

Welcome: Jonathan Pearson, Executive Director, The Horizon Foundation for New Jersey

Michael Cioco, Acting President, Rowan College at Burlington County

Burlington County Knock Out Opioid Abuse Town Hall Panel

Assemblyman Troy Singleton

Assemblyman Troy Singleton has devoted his life to public service in government, political and organized labor posts at all levels. Assemblyman Singleton graduated with a degree in business administration and finance from Rowan University. In 2011, he was elected to his first term in the New Jersey General Assembly, representing the 7th Legislative District. He is a past board member of Rowan University's Board of Trustees, a past member of the Boys & Girls Club of Camden County, the VFW Post #3020 Men's Auxiliary and many other boards.

Freeholder Linda Hughes

Linda Hughes, an Evesham, NJ resident, is a healthcare communications professional with diverse experience. Linda joined the Freeholder Board in 2016. In 2017, Linda created the Addiction Task Force to address the drug abuse epidemic plaguing our communities. Before joining the Freeholder Board, Linda served on the RCBC Board of Trustees, the Burlington County Board of Social Services, and the Evesham Township Zoning Board. Linda earned her B.A. in Communications with a public relations specialization from Rowan University.

Suzanne Harrison

Suzanne Harrison, Co-Founder of the non-profit organization King's Crusade. King's Crusade was established after Suzanne and her sister and Co-Founder, Anne Gutos lost their brother King Shaffer to a heroin fentanyl overdose. Suzanne and King's Crusade help others struggling by providing resources for detox and rehab, funding for sober living and basic necessities, and providing families with support. Suzanne has had many years of serving the community and continues as an active leader.

Joseph Conlin

Joseph Conlin is a prevention educator for Prevention Plus of Burlington County. He is a former Chief of Police and one of Burlington County's first DARE Officers. Since 2009, he has been a coordinator for the Burlington County Coalition for Healthy Communities with a focus on youth prevention programs. He also conducts prevention programs for both active and retired military families.

Scott Coffina, Burlington County Prosecutor

Scott A. Coffina was sworn in as the Burlington County Prosecutor on March 31, 2017. Prior to becoming Prosecutor he served as the Senior Deputy Chief Counsel to Governor Chris Christie. He joined the administration from Drinker Biddle & Reath, LLP. Prior to this he was an Associate Counsel to President George W. Bush from May 2007 until January 2009. Prosecutor Coffina also was an Assistant United States Attorney in Philadelphia from 1997 to 2001. He received his undergraduate degree from Cornell University and his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Rachel Haroz, MD

Rachel Haroz, MD is an assistant professor in the Department of Emergency Medicine at Cooper Medical School of Rowan University. She is board certified in emergency medicine, medical toxicology and addiction medicine. Rachel obtained her BA in Biology from Brandeis University, her MD from Tufts University and completed a residency in emergency medicine and fellowship in medical toxicology. She currently works in the ER department as well as the Outreach Clinic, an addiction medicine specialty clinic dedicated to treating patients with substance use disorders. She is also involved in medical student, resident and fellow education.

#KnockOutOpioidAbuse

Collaborating Organizations:

Rowan College
at
BURLINGTON COUNTY